9. Yoshimichi UEDA (Nagoya University)

A new approach to free mutual information

Abstract

I´ll explain a new approach to free mutual information arising from a consideration on large deviation question to the matrix liberation process. It involves a time dependent version of the liberation derivative. If time permitting, I´ll give a few observations on the derivative.